Project Affected Families (PAFs) 2003, notified by the Ministry of Rural Development, is applicable to projects displacing 500 families or more en-masse in plain areas and 250 families en-masse in hilly areas, Desert Development Programme Blocks, areas mentioned in Schedule V and Schedule VI of the Constitution. This National Policy has not been revised by the Ministry of Rural Development.

(b) As informed by Government of Andhra Pradesh, the number of project affected tribals have been identified, family-wise and village-wise.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) and (e) Ministry of Tribal Affairs has granted clearance to the Resettlement and Rehabilitation Plan for ST PAFs in respect of Polavaram Project of Andhra Pradesh subject to fulfillment of certain conditions by the State Government. Among these conditions, Ministry of Tribal Affairs has directed Government of Andhra Pradesh to follow their Resettlement and Rehabilitation (R&R) Plan, in accordance with the provisions of NPRR 2003. The State Government has also been asked to provide land to STs in the command area of the project, and preferably within the Scheduled Area if the command area and Scheduled Area are co-terminus in lieu of the land acquired from them for the construction of project. The Government of Andhra Pradesh has been asked to ensure that R&R Plan is implemented and completed within a specified time schedule before the submergence in any area starts taking place. Further, the State Government has been directed to ensure a better livelihood with dignity for the STs in the new set up and surroundings, and also to protect all the rights and privileges enjoyed by the STs in their original habitat. The State Government has also been directed to ensure through the construction of embankments that no submergence and displacement of tribals takes place in the States of Orissa and Chhattisgarh.
